Strange British Sports and Curious Competitions

A photograph showing a large crowd of people gathered on a grassy hillside, possibly for a sporting event. The crowd is dense and stretches across the width of the image. In the foreground, several people are visible, some appearing to be in motion or engaged in an activity. The background shows a line of trees under a clear sky.

From worm charming to wife-carrying, discover the weird and wonderful competitions in Britain. In addition to these curious competitions, students will learn about traditional British sporting events including cricket, horse racing at Ascot, and the Boat Race between the University of Cambridge and the University of Oxford.

From the origins of the universe to the Bermuda Triangle, mysteries have always existed. This talk will look at some of these puzzling mysteries and their depiction in literature, TV, and film. Students will also be challenged to think outside of the box as they work collaboratively to solve surprising riddles.

A Tough Nut to Crack: Puzzling Mysteries and Mysterious Puzzles

A photograph of a glowing, disc-shaped object, resembling a UFO or an alien spacecraft, hovering in a dark sky. The object is illuminated from within, creating a bright, circular glow. Below the object, the silhouettes of trees are visible against the dark background, suggesting a forest setting at night.
